PREFATORY NOTES.

On the occasion of my 150*th Auction Sale, I have great pleasure in offering to Collectors the large and fine entire collection of the MODERN COINS OF THE WORLD, formed by JOHN F. BATEMAN, Esq., LOWELL, MASS.*

Mr. Bateman's aim was to collect only extremely fine specimens, in silver and copper, of all the modern countries of the World A cursory perusal of the following pages will demonstrate how successful he was in the undertaking. There is scarcely a coin rating under "very good;" the greater part average "fine to uncirculated;" many are absolutely perfect in condition. All modern countries are represented in their varying types, including many coins of decided rarity and value.

Circumstances having arisen which may necessitate Mr. Bateman's absence from home for several years, he decided to break up his Collection, and allow Collectors to benefit by his experience and accumulations in this field of numismatics.

Collectors are respectfully invited carefully to scrutinize the following pages with the view of securing for their own cabinets specimens from this fine and remarkable Collection. Absolute, unreserved sales, like the present one, offer the best possible opportunities for the purchase of fine, desirable coins at a minimum of cost.

Orders carefully executed by the undersigned and Coin Dealers generally. Priced Catalogue, two autotype plates, after sale, 75 cents.

ED. FROSSARD,

Numismatist and Archæologist,

108 E. 14th Street, New York.
